DATE: 27 Dec 13

TO: ALL ISR Affiliates

SUBJECT: Upper Body Protection That Meets ISR Guidelines.

It is the responsibility of the racer to select protective equipment that will conform to ISR guidelines and provide adequate protection. Even though race rules committees and ISR develop guidelines, ISR does not endorse or guarantee specific products or manufacturers of protective equipment. Racers must rely on their own judgment in the selection of helmets and other apparel for protection and durability. The products attached below were submitted by their manufactures as products that meet these guidelines.
